

Birds Species Detected	White Mountain Birdsong Workshop, June 28 - July 3, 2004
Common Loon	2 seen but not heard
Great Blue Heron	several seen and 1 heard
Turkey Vulture	1 seen
Wood Duck	2 seen and heard
Mallard	many seen and heard
Hooded Merganser	several seen
Osprey	1 seen
Bald Eagle	3 seen (2 adults)
Northern Harrier	1 seen (female)
Broad-winged Hawk	2 seen and 1 heard
Red-tailed Hawk	2 seen
American Kestrel	1 seen
Ruffed Grouse	4 seen
Wild Turkey	flock of 6 seen
Virginia Rail	3 heard, 1 seen
Mourning Dove	many seen and heard
Chimney Swift	many seen and heard
Ruby-throated Hummingbird	several seen
Belted Kingfisher	several seen and heard
Yellow-bellied Sapsucker	many heard calling and drumming, young heard begging at nest hole
Downy Woodpecker	several heard
Hairy Woodpecker	several seen and heard, including immature male with yellow crown
Black-backed Woodpecker	one briefly heard calling
Northern Flicker	heard calling and drumming, also seen
Olive-sided Flycatcher	1 seen and heard repeatedly
Eastern Wood-Pewee	one heard
Yellow-bellied Flycatcher	one heard only briefly
Alder Flycatcher	several heard, one seen
Willow Flycatcher	one heard briefly
Least Flycatcher	several heard and seen
Eastern Phoebe	several seen and heard
Great-crested Flycatcher	one heard
Eastern Kingbird	several seen and heard
Blue-headed Vireo	several seen and heard
Warbling Vireo	one heard and seen
Philadelphia Vireo	one seen singing from nest
Red-eyed Vireo	many heard and seen
Blue Jay	several seen and heard
American Crow	several seen and heard
Common Raven	several seen and heard
Horned Lark	1 seen
Tree Swallow	several seen and heard
Bank Swallow	several seen and heard
Cliff Swallow	several seen and heard, including a pair building a nest
Barn Swallow	several seen and heard
Black-capped Chickadee	many seen and heard
Boreal Chickadee	3 seen and heard
Red-breasted Nuthatch	several heard and seen
White-breasted Nuthatch	several heard and seen
Brown Creeper
Winter Wren	many heard and seen

Birds Species Detected	White Mountain Birdsong Workshop, June 28 - July 3, 2004
Marsh Wren	1 heard briefly
Golden-crowned Kinglet	several heard and seen
Ruby-crowned Kinglet	one heard and seen
Veery	many heard and seen
Bicknell's Thrush	3 heard
Swainson's Thrush	several heard and 1 seen
Hermit Thrush	several heard and seen
Wood Thrush	1 heard
American Robin	many heard and seen
Gray Catbird	several heard and seen
Northern Mockingbird	1 heard and seen
Brown Thrasher	several heard and seen
European Starling	several heard and seen
Cedar Waxwing	many heard and seen
Nashville Warbler	many heard and seen
Northern Parula	several heard and seen
Yellow Warbler	several heard and seen
Chestnut-sided Warbler	many heard and seen
Magnolia Warbler	many heard and seen
Black-throated Blue Warbler	several heard and seen
Yellow-rumped Warbler	many heard and seen
Black-throated Green Warbler	several heard and seen
Blackburnian Warbler	several heard and seen
Blackpoll Warbler	many heard and several seen
American Redstart	several heard and seen
Ovenbird	many heard, few seen
Mourning Warbler	several heard, 1 seen
Common Yellowthroat	many heard and seen
Canada Warbler	several heard and seen
Scarlet Tanager	several heard
Chipping Sparrow	several heard and seen
Savannah Sparrow	several heard and seen
Song Sparrow	many heard and seen
Swamp Sparrow	many heard and seen
White-throated Sparrow	many heard and seen
Dark-eyed Junco	several heard and seen
Rose-breasted Grosbeak	several heard and seen
Indigo Bunting	several heard and seen
Bobolink	several seen
Red-winged Blackbird	many heard and seen
Eastern Meadowlark	one seen
Common Grackle	many heard and seen
Baltimore Oriole	several heard and seen
Purple Finch	several heard and seen
White-winged Crossbill	2 heard and seen
American Goldfinch	many heard and seen
Evening Grosbeak	1 male seen, several heard
House Sparrow	many heard and seen